Hi my name is Smarty and I am the new feline reporter for the Mirror. I have just dropped into the office to give you a cat's eye view of life amongst the gardens and fields of Skipsea. Just a little background information before I begin. I am rather a mature feline. I have lived in Skipsea for almost 16 years and when I was just a kitten my favourite pastime was chasing mice around the farmyard but, now I am older and wiser, I tend not to meander far away from my current food source or my favourite sleeping site, (the roof of the tin shed in the garden I reside in at the moment) but I digress. What I really wanted to tell you was... oh I have to run. It's dinner time; catch up with you next time.
